MISSION STATEMENT

New Alternatives for Children, Inc. (NAC) was founded on the belief that all children have the right to be nurtured within a safe and permanent family.

NAC's mission is to provide innovative high quality services in support of birth, foster, and adoptive families caring primarily for medically complex children, which includes children with severe physical disabilities, emotional and behavioral challenges, and developmental disabilities. NAC's services enable children to remain in or to be returned to their families whenever possible or to be adopted by loving families. Working with children whose birth families live in poverty, NAC's continuum of services ensures that children's physical, social, educational, recreational, medical, and mental healthcare needs are met.

By supporting families NAC prevents lengthy stays in foster care, hospitals, or other institutions. NAC builds on family strengths, provides opportunities, and assists all family members in reaching for and achieving their potential.

MESSAGE FROM NAC'S LEADERS

David Sorkin

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to New Alternatives for Children's NAC KIDS CAN Gala.

As we gather for this inspiring event, we are reminded that we are here to ensure that the medically complex children and families served by NAC can and do achieve brighter and better futures. We believe that every child who walks through our door can succeed in reaching their inherent potential and achieve their life goals. Since NAC began, we have witnessed children faced with major obstacles thrive when they have the right support system.

Arlene Goldsmith,
LCSW, PHD

This year marks an important segment of growth for NAC. We are proud to celebrate the opening of our new 60,000 sq. ft. headquarters at 825 7th Avenue in Manhattan. We have moved into our new home and look forward to welcoming you to our Open House in early December. With this new home, we are laying the groundwork to ensure that we continue our vital and life-changing work for years to come.

None of this would be possible without the support of all of our friends here tonight. We are proud to be honoring one such friend, Roger Lynch, for his extraordinary commitment and generosity to NAC children and families. We extend an extra special thank you to our Dinner Co-Chairs Michael Fricklas and Ynon Kreiz for helping to make this evening a spectacular success, as well as, to Jessica Cruel and Jon Batiste for lending their talent in support of NAC kids.

As we look to the future and all that is possible, we thank you for your commitment to making a difference in the lives of NAC children today, tomorrow and for many tomorrows to come.

With much appreciation,

Roger Lynch

*Chief Executive Officer
Condé Nast*

Roger Lynch is the CEO of Condé Nast, a global media company producing premium content for more than 1 billion consumers in 32 markets worldwide on all platforms available today, including print, digital, video and social. The company's portfolio includes many of the world's most respected and influential brands including Vogue, Vanity Fair, The New Yorker, AD, GQ, Wired, Condé Nast Traveler, Glamour, Allure and Bon Appétit, among others.

Upon joining in 2019, Lynch undertook the ambitious task of merging the Condé Nast businesses into one global company for the first time in its over 100-year history. He continues to lead a digital-first transformation strategy focused on the expansion of consumer programs. With investments in content, journalism and technology, his leadership contributions have driven global audience gains and double-digit revenue growth for the company.

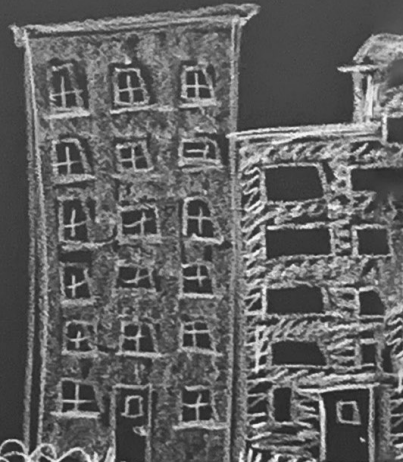

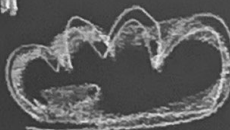

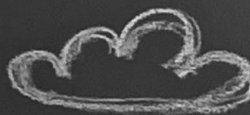

Lynch currently serves on the Board of Directors of Condé Nast, Mattel, Inc., and the Partnership for New York City. He is also a member of the Champions of Change Coalition, the Board of Overseers of the Tuck School at Dartmouth College and the Board of Councilors of the Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences at the University of Southern California. He received his Master of Business Administration with the highest distinction from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College and his Bachelor of Science in Physics from the University of Southern California where he was honored with the 2023 Alumni Merit Award.

Prior to joining Condé Nast, Lynch served as President and CEO of Pandora, then the U.S.'s largest streaming music service. He was also the founding CEO of Sling TV (owned by DISH Network), Lynch led the creation, launch and scaling of the No. 1 U.S. over-the-top television service delivering the best of live sports, news and entertainment to broadband-connected devices. Prior to joining DISH, Lynch served as Chairman and CEO of Video Networks International, Ltd., an IPTV technology company in the U.K. While at Video Networks he won an Emmy for Scamp, an on-demand children's channel, and a BAFTA (British Academy of Film and The Arts) for V:MX, a collection of on-demand music video channels. He also previously served as President and CEO of Chello Broadband N.V., a broadband Internet service provider with operations in ten European countries. Previously, Lynch was a technology investment banker with Morgan Stanley in New York, Silicon Valley and London. He began his career as a member of the physics technical staff at the Hughes Aircraft Company.

NAC JUNIOR BOARD

We are looking for young leaders with unique talent, passion, and commitment to join the NAC Junior Board! As a Junior Board Member, you will have the opportunity to work with other dynamic young professionals to think big about innovative ways to fundraise, advocate, and volunteer to help support NAC's mission.

Why Join the NAC Junior Board:

- ♥ Giving back – help to change NAC kids' lives directly through fundraising and exclusive volunteer events throughout the year.
- ♥ Entrepreneurial and leadership opportunity - network and collaborate with NAC's Board of Directors and learn what it takes to serve on a Board of Directors.
- ♥ Networking - meet, mingle, and work with other like-minded young professionals throughout New York City.
- ♥ Utilize and strengthen skills - participate in activities such as public speaking, fundraising, events, social media, advocacy, corporate engagement, and marketing.

To learn more about becoming a NAC Junior Board member, please visit www.NACKidsCan.org/JuniorBoard or email Junior Board President Ashley Davis at JuniorBoard@NACKidsCan.org.

VOLUNTEER & CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Join the NAC family and give back directly to children and families in need in our community. Every year, NAC works with over 300 individuals and 75+ company and corporate partners to deliver real help and hope to children with special medical needs.

Join us as an individual volunteer or corporate partner for any of the below opportunities:

- ♥ Corporate Giving Drive – Give to a NAC child directly by organizing a company giving drive! Current drives include a Holiday Toy Drive, Book Drive, Winter Coat Drive, and School Supply Drive. Our NAC team makes it easy by setting up an Amazon Wish List that can be distributed to employees.
- ♥ Corporate Volunteer Day – participate in a NAC recreation event or help to sponsor a special event for NAC kids. Corporate-sponsored events can take on a variety of shapes and forms – go bowling with NAC kids; host a financial literacy or resume building workshop; spend the day at the zoo, a boat ride around NYC, or a softball game in Central Park with NAC kids. We leave it open to the interests and creativity of your team.
- ♥ Tutoring & Mentoring – By becoming a tutor or mentor to a NAC youth, you will get the opportunity to work one-on-one with a child and help shape their future.
- ♥ Recreation & Special Events – NAC has over 50 groups, recreational events, and holiday parties throughout the year for NAC kids. There is always something fun going on, and we need your help to make it the best day ever for NAC kids. Join us for trick or treating on Halloween, making heart cookies on Cupid's Day, apple picking in the fall, or helping NAC kids go for the gold at the NAC Kids Olympics. There are plenty of opportunities to become involved.

If you are interested in partnering on a giving drive or volunteer opportunity, please contact NAC's Director of Volunteers and Community Relations, Bobbi Nathanson at BNathanson@NacKidsCan.org or 212-696-1550.
