IN CONVERSATION WITH CARYN CAMPBELL

Misty Copeland is a Principal Dancer with American Ballet Theatre, the first Black woman to be promoted to the position in the company's 75-year history. She is The New York Times bestselling author of Life in Motion, Ballerina Body, Black Ballerinas, and a picture book titled Bunheads. She is also the author of the award-winning picture book Firebird. Her heartfelt memoir The Wind at My Back, about her friendship with trailblazer Raven Wilkinson, captures the importance of mentorship, shared history, and honoring the past to ensure a stronger future. In 2022, Misty launched The Misty Copeland Foundation, with its signature program BE BOLD, which aims to bring greater diversity, equity, and inclusion to dance, especially ballet.
